- MediCal Estate Recovery Governor Brown recently signed California's Budget Bill which included special provisions scaling back MediCal's right of recovery after the death of a MediCal beneficiary. This change will help minimize the devastation faced by some families when later forced to sell the family home to settle up with MediCal. Here's a great Primer on the new law from California Advocates for Nursing Home Reform (CANHR).
- A Geriatric Psychologist's Perspective on Aging Parents. Spending quality time with loved ones is usually something you look forward to. But when you have aging parents, going home to see them can sometimes signify a rather different, and at times, stressful experience.
- Dementia Care Dos & Don'ts: Dealing with Dementia Behavior Problems Mid-to-late stage dementia and Alzheimer's disease often presents challenging behavior problems. The anger, sadness, paranoia, confusion and fear that people with the disease are experiencing can result in aggressive and sometimes violent speech or actions.
- Learn Something Constantly Meet the ultimate bookmark to feed your mind. With no excuse list, you'll get a list of websites where you can expand your knowledge on a variety of topics. Examples include Coursera, Codecademy, and Duolingo. You have no excuse not to teach yourself something.
- Are You Ready For Retirement? For awhile, you might have been asking yourself, "When can I retire?" But now, retirement's almost here, and you are asking, "Am I really ready to retire?"
